

I became a subscriber to satellite radio about six months ago and really value the ability to hear traffic and weather news in addition to all the other varied programming offered. I do not think there should be restrictions on broadcast content, especially since I pay for this service. I hope you will vote against the National Association of Broadcasters' petition.